

universität wien

Historisch-Kulturwissenschaftliche Fakultät

Forschungsschwerpunkt
Demokratie und Menschenrechte

THE LANGUAGE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN HISTORY: ABSTRACT UNIVERSALITY AND HISTORICAL NARRATIVES

Workshop with Lora Wildenthal, Rice University

Thursday, May 23, 2024

1:30 – 3:30 pm

Main building of the University of Vienna, courtyard 3, „Tiefparterre“, seminar room 9

Following the Gerald Stourzh-Lecture on the History of Human Rights and Democracy with Lora Wildenthal, the faculty's key research area "Democracy and the History of Human Rights" is offering the opportunity to continue discussion of Lora Wildenthal's research, based on chapters of her book "The Language of Human Rights in West Germany" (2013, Introduction and Conclusion).

In addition, we may refer to the volume Lora Wildenthal coedited with Jean Quataert: "The Routledge History of Human Rights" (2019, Introduction).

Tim Neu and Claudia Kraft for the key research area Democracy and the History of Human Rights

Birgitta Bader Zaar, Margarete Grandner and Thomas Angerer

for the Gerald Stourzh-Lectures on the History of Human Rights and Democracy

Please, register for this event until May 9, 2024 with thomas.angerer@univie.ac.at