

INTERNATIONAL NETWORKS OF
WOMEN'S ACTIVISM AND MOBILITY

IN THE AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN MONARCHY
AND THE SUCCESSOR STATES

1848-1945

11-12 NOVEMBER, 2024

11 NOVEMBER, 2024

COLLEGIUM HUNGARICUM WIEN

9:30–9:50 Welcoming remarks:

Márton Méhes
Iván Bertényi Jr.
Dóra Fedeles-Czeferner

9:50–10:20

Keynote presentation: Johanna Gehmacher (University of Vienna): Interpretations, Communication, Conflict, and Translation in the Contact Zones of Transnational Women's Movements Around 1900

10:20–12:00

Women's Movements and Activists in the Habsburg Period. Continuities and Ruptures in International Networks in the Habsburg and Post-Habsburg Periods
(Chair: Peter Becker, University of Vienna)

10:20–10:40

Chiara Paris (Center for Advanced Studies, Bolzano): Pioneering Political Participation: Women's Struggle for Equality in 19th and 20th Century South Tyrol during the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy and Italian Annexation

10:40–11:00

Dóra Fedeles-Czeferner (Hungarian Research Network, Institute of History, Budapest): Conflict, Cooperation, Circulation: Progressive Women's Movements in Austria and Hungary

11:00–11:20

Agatha Schwartz (University of Ottawa): Austro-Hungarian Women's Activism from the "Periphery": The Cases of Adél Nemessányi, Milica Tomić, Jelica Belović-Bernadžikowska, and Nafija Sarajlić

11:20–12:00 Discussion

12:00–13:00 Lunch break

13:00–15:00

Women Activists, Organizations, and Networks in Minority or Stateless position I.
(Chair: Beáta Márkus, University of Pécs)

13:00–13:20

Julia Bavouzet (University of Vienna): Transnational Claim-Making: Female Voices from the Habsburg Successor States

13:20–13:40

Isidora Grubački (Institute of Contemporary History, Ljubljana): Between Pre-World War I Legacies and New Forms of Activism: The Case of Yugoslav Women's Activism in the Early Postwar Period (1919–1924)

13:40–14:00

Alla Shvets (National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Ivan Franko Institute, Lviv): Courage to be Yourself: Nation-Building and International Activities of Ukrainian Women's Organizations in 1914–1939

14:00–14:20

Alexandra Ghiț (University of Vienna): Transnational Nationalism, Empire, and their Aftermath in Romanian-Speaking Women's Organizing in Transylvania (1850–1950)

14:20–15:00 Discussion

15:00–15:15 Coffee break

15:15–17:00

The Role of Press and Translation in Women's Movements. (Chair: Zsófia Lóránd, University of Vienna)

15:15–15:35

Marián Gladiš (Pavol Jozef Šafárik University, Košice): The Cooperation of Slovak and Czech Women's Magazines in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries

15:35–15:55

Marta Verginella–Urška Strle (University of Ljubljana): A View from Aside: Social Network around Slovenka, a Trieste-based Women's Newspaper

15:55–16:15

Žarka Svirčev (Institute for Literature and Art, Beograd): Connecting Stitch: Ethnography and Women's Activism

16:15–17:00 Discussion

12 NOVEMBER, 2024

COLLEGIUM HUNGARICUM WIEN

9:30–10:00

Keynote presentation: Judith Szapor (McGill University, Montreal): Tracing a Century of Women's Activism and Mobility in East Central Europe: Continuities, Ruptures, and Legacies

10:00–10:20

Lydia Jammerneegg (Österreichische Nationalbibliothek, Vienna): Frauen in Bewegung – An Online Documentation and a Digital Collection on Women's Movements in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy and Austria 1848–1938

10:20–12:15

Alternative Networks I: Peace Activists, Socialists, Psychoanalysts. (Chair: Christa Hämmerle, University of Vienna)

10:20–10:40

Peter Moser (Archives of Rural History, Bern): The 'Women's Organization for World Order' and its Attempt to Link the 'Women's Question' with the 'Agrarian Question' in the Interwar Period

10:40–11:00

Lea Horvat (Friedrich Schiller University, Jena): Waiting Tables and a Table of One's Own in Early 20th Century: Women and Coffeehouses in Austro-Hungarian and German Empires

11:00–11:20

Anna Borgos (Institute of Cognitive Neuroscience and Psychology, Budapest): "I think women are wrong to think that suffrage is the solution to their problems..." Interactions Between Psychoanalytic and Feminist Discourses in Early-20th-century Hungary and Austria

11:20–12:15 Discussion

12:15–13:15 Lunch break

13:15–15:00

Alternative Networks II: Peace Activists, Socialists, Psychoanalysts. (Chair: Gergely Romsics, Hungarian Research Network, Institute of History, Budapest)

13:15–13:35

Ingrid Sharp (University of Leeds): “Kwakerspeisung”: Famine Relief in Post-War Europe 1918–23

13:35–13:55

Therese Garstener (University of Vienna): Organized Women Government Employees in Cisleithania and the Successor States

13:55–14:15

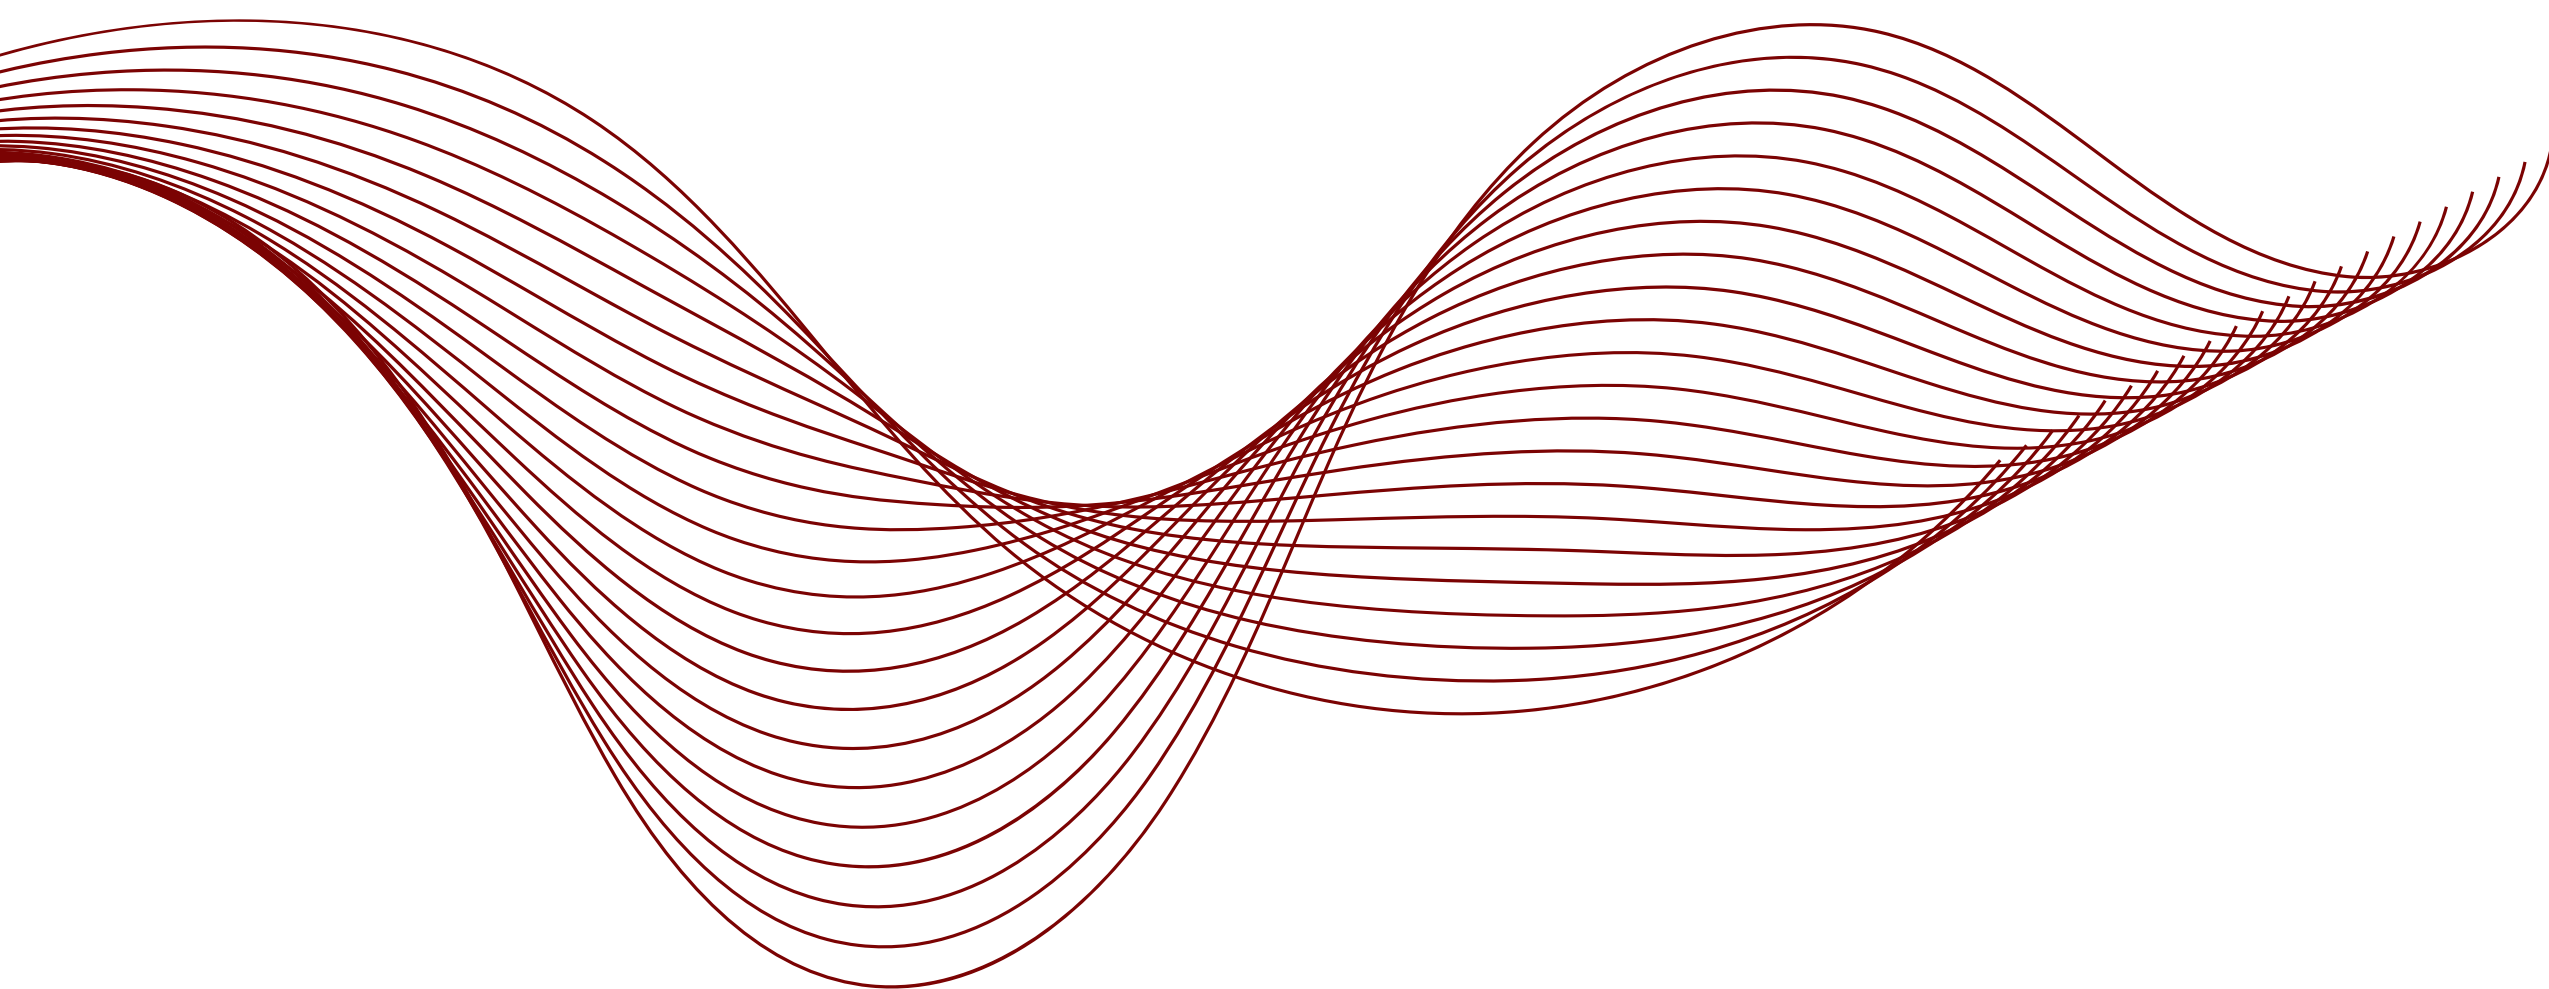

Clara Anna Egger (University of Vienna): A True Peace Meeting of the East and West

14:15–14:55 Discussion

14:55–15:10 Coffee break

15:10–15:40 Concluding discussion. Moderator: Ingrid Sharp (University of Leeds)

15:40–16:00 Closing reflections. Iván Bertényi Jr., Dóra Fedeles-Czeferner

Partner:

HUN REN Research Centre for the Humanities, Institute of History
Committee for Women's History of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences
Collegium Hungaricum Wien

